LOCAL AND GENERAL.

A house is for rent. See advertisement.

Kaahumanu street is now known as "Royalist Row."

The Hawaiian Band will give a concert at Emma Square this evening.

Hawaiian Lodge, F. & A. M., will hold a special meeting this evening.

Mr. H. P. Baldwin writes that the loss from the Makaweli fire will not exceed fifty tons.

Miss Berry's select primary school for girls and boys, 32 Emma street, will re-open this morning.

The Annexation Club will move into the Fire Police Hall, its new headquarters, about the 23d inst.

The Minister of the Interior advertises the sale of a piece of government land on Nuuanu Avenue.

Senator C. L. McArthur and wife returned from Maui yesterday. They will leave for home on the Australia.

Chief Justice Judd has ordered a special term of the Supreme Court to be held on next Thursday morning at 10 o'clock.

The natives have become tired of that royalist restoration story. When it is mentioned now, they remark, "too much lie."

The Chinese immigrants, who arrived on the steamer China on the 8th inst., were released from quarantine on Saturday.

According to the ADVERTISER'S Hilo letter in this issue, Mr. Rickard did not make a big hit with his mass meeting at that place.

The Pacific Hardware Company has made arrangements with the Commissioner of Agriculture to issue orders for insecticide wash in containers.

Mr. George Renton has been formally installed as manager of the Kohala Plantation. Mr. Renton is a pushing young man, as his past record shows.

Commissioner Blount called on President Dole on Saturday morning. Captain May, of the Hyacinth, was also a caller. He was accompanied by the British Minister, Major Wodehouse.

A. P. Paehole, a former member of the Hawaiian Legislature, has been selected by the Hawaiian Patriotic League as its delegate from Molokai to the general convention, to be held at Honolulu on May 1, 1893.

About one hundred sailors and marines from H. B. M. S. Hyacinth attended the morning service of the Second Congregation of St. Andrew's Cathedral. There was a large congregation present outside of the sailors.

It was learned on Saturday that Mr. W. C. Wilder, one of the Hawaiian Commissioners to Washington, would be elected as a member of the Advisory Council, in place of Mr. J. A. McCandless, who takes the tax assessorship.

The Rev. Alex. Mackintosh has called a meeting of the members of the Second Congregation of St. Andrew's Cathedral, to be held in the Sunday school room next Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock. A full attendance is requested.

Harry Von Werthern has retired from the editorial chair of the Liberal. Of late the Hawaiian and English portions of the journal named have clashed somewhat. The retiring editor is not in favor of a republic, as Wilcox seems to be.

Eight Chinese with their queues tied together were marched through the streets yesterday afternoon on their way to the police station. They were captured out on Beretania street by Captain Schlemmer while they were enjoying a game of dominoes.

Captain John Ross was at Hana, Maui, at last reports. He is attempting to convince the natives that annexation is not the proper thing, but according to all accounts he has not been very successful. As a matter of fact the natives do not take much stock in him.

A POOR RACE.

Clarence Macfarlane's Horse is Distanced.

Quite a respectable crowd of people were present at the race-track on Saturday afternoon to witness a race between Clarence Macfarlane's Duke and a stallion owned by Thomas Hollinger. The race was to be mile heats, the horse winning three out of five to be declared the winner.

It took but one heat to decide the race, as Duke was distanced. Mr. Hollinger's animal trotted the mile in 3:08 and took the purse, which was said to be $350.

The onlookers were greatly disappointed at the result, as they expected to see an interesting contest.

The second race between the old racer Joe Duke and Mr. Williams' horse, for some reason, did not come off.

A THIEF CAUGHT.

A MIDNIGHT MARAUDER COMES TO GRIEF.

A Sailor on Board of a Vessel Tries His Hand at House-breaking.

Yesterday morning about 1 o'clock, Seelye Shaw, proprietor of the Merchants' Exchange, who lives on the corner of Fort and Beretania streets, was awakened by a noise in his room. He got out of bed in time to see a form go through a door. Mr. Shaw followed up the stranger but owing to the darkness he was unable to capture him and the marauder escaped by a rear stairway.

In the meantime other roomers in the house were awakened and a general search was made for the man, but he had vanished. They found his shoes which he had removed. They were placed at the foot of the stairway. The thief's hat was also found. He had lost it in his hurry to get away.

Mr. Shaw also discovered that a purse containing $10 in gold had been taken from his clothes and another gentleman said that his room had been entered and a gold watch along with a plug of tobacco had been taken.

The police were notified of the burglary at once and Captains Schlemmer and Juen took the matter in hand and three hours later they arrested a man, who gave the name of Brutto, on board of the Katie Pickering, a vessel at present unloading lumber at the Fort street wharf. The man denied that he was the house-breaker, but the police searched his bunk and were rewarded by finding the watch and piece of tobacco under a pillow. Later the coin was found on his person. The man is employed on the vessel as a sailor. The police say that he is a hard character and that he has served time in California for house-breaking.

Captains Juen and Schlemmer deserve credit for their clever capture as they had but a poor description of the man.

Brutto is also known as "Dolly, the Sport." He is charged with house-breaking.

ANOTHER CAPTURE.

On Saturday morning, the Japanese cook employed by Mr. J. T. Waterhouse, Jr., reported that his room had been entered by some one and $16.75 in coin was stolen. A native girl named Malie was suspected. Captain Schlemmer took the case in hand and in the afternoon he found the girl hidden in some brush in one of the Nuuanu cemeteries.

The girl admitted that she had stolen the money and said she had given it to her father. The father denies having received the money. The girl is charged with house-breaking.

"August Flower"

What is It For?

This is the query perpetually on your little boy's lips. And he is no worse than the bigger, older, balder-headed boys. Life is an interrogation point. "What is it for?" we continually cry from the cradle to the grave. So with this little introductory sermon we turn and ask: "What is AUGUST FLOWER for?" As easily answered as asked: It is for Dyspepsia. It is a special remedy for the Stomach and Liver. Nothing more than this; but this trifling. We believe August Flower cures Dyspepsia. We know it will. We have reasons for knowing it. Twenty years ago it started in a small country town. To-day it has an honored place in every city and country store, possesses one of the largest manufacturing plants in the country and sells everywhere. Why is this? The reason is as simple as a child's thought. It is honest, does one thing, and does it right along—it cures Dyspepsia.
